MONET'S SPARKLING RACE AT CITY PARK

Third Race Is Declared off-Jockey Oregar Is Injured-Dwyer to Succeed Cassidy.

New Orleans, La., February 23.—Monet, the massive son of Ben Strome racing here in the colors of J. H. McCormick, gave City Park race-goers an exhibition of his quality by beating some very fast sprinters in the fourth race at the new track this afternoon.

The card was of gapage level.

fast sprinters in the fourth race at the new track this afternoon.

The card was of general excellence and the crowd, in which Mardi Gras visitors were noticeable, was a big one. Four favorites and second choices won. The third race on the original card was declared off and this left six races to go. Minnie Adams and Kargut scratched out of the third race, which made St. Joseph stand out by himself. Hence the action of the officials in declaring the race off.

Jockey Oregar, who had the mount on Tom Morgan, suffered hijuries when that colt holted over the fence with him at the head of the mile and a quarter clute. The lad landed on one of the track floats, striking it with his back. He was unconscious when picked up. W. Allen was substituted in his place.

Both the stirrup leathers on jockey Morris' saddle broke while riding Florence May in the fifth race and he was forced to pull up. Morris, by the way, arrived from his home in Chicago this morning, where he has been spending a few weeks with his jearents.

Bookmaker Bob Turner arrived from New York-

Bookmaker Bob Turner arrived from New York this morning and will cut in at City Park tomorrow. Richard Dwyer will, it is understood, take starter Cassidy's place when the latter leaves for Bennings.

SUSPENSION OF NICOL RILES PHILLIPS.

Orders a Car and Says He Will Take Fred Gook's Stable to Oaklawn.

New Orleans, La., February 23.—Chagrined at the action of the judges in suspending jockey Nicol for rough riding in the first race yesterday, trainer William Phillips of Fred Cook's stable announced his intention this morning of shipping his entire stable to the Oaklawn track, Hot Springs. Phillips wired Secretary Stebbins asking for twenty stalls. He has also ordered a car. The chances are, say some of his close acquaintances, that when Phillips thinks the matter over, he will change his mind. Jockey Nicol has been given great latitude by the officials at City Park this winter. On a number of occasions he has resorted to rough tacties in an endeavor to win and about three weeks ago his work became so rough that it was found necessary to set him down for one week. There is no question as to the lad's honesty, but he has certainly west. New Orleans, La., February 23.-Chagrined at the are fixed absolutely and the conditions" are to be eliminated, and the index and marginal note should read "sex allowances" instead of "gelding allowances."

In rule 109 (page 33), in the first line, the words "for jockey" are to be eliminated.

Rule 111 (page 34) should read: The position of borses in starting shall be determined by lot by the officials. The starter shall place vicious or nuruly horses on the extreme outside and the start shall not be delayed on their account.

Rules 114 and 115 (page 35) are steeplechase rules and should be eliminated from this part of the Yankee Jim got away slowly, but moved up rapidly into a fast going second. John N. Sheehan tired badly after showing good early speed. Charley Payne was messed about and worked through in close quarters on the inside, finishing with a rush. May L. N. showed superior early speed, but tired badly at the end. Como made up considerable ground from a bad start. Doric was shut off at the start.

Winner—B. g, by Royal Emblem—Lillian Belle (trained by L. D. Hall).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Bantam, palpably outclassing the others, forged quickly into the lead and, winning all the way, was never fully extended. Sizz, away poorly, steadily improved her position, closing up with a fast stretch run and ran a cracking race. Dick Wilson ran throughout in close and game, but unavailing apursuit of the winner. Frank Flittner, never dangerous, can do better. Frolic journeyed on the inside in deep going, where he was anchored, and was stumbling repeatedly in the stretch. Throw his race out. The others were beaten off.

Sylvia Talbot, shut off at the start, closed a big early gap, but was never able to get up in a fast and game effort and showed rapid improvement. Princess Wheeler held third place safe from start to finish. Ethel Barrymore, inadequately handled, closed a big gap from a poor start. Melar ran a good last half. La Chata was palpably handicapped by the going. Soundly ran a bad race.

Went to post at 3:22. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily, second the same. Canejo, suddenly improved, steadily improved her position on her own courage, caught the leaders tiring in the stretch and won off. Blackthorn, which also found his speed quickly, was in close attendance on the pacemaker to the stretch, where he got into an apparently safe lead and then suddenly succumbed to the winner. Jerry Hunt made the running for seven furlongs before he tired and was an easy third. Ripper, visibly improved, may yet make good. It was too short for Expedient, which finished with his customary rush. Dr. Shorb tired early. W. B. Gates was sore and unable to raise a respectable gallop.

Nine Spot began slowly, but made up a lot of ground throughout and, finishing with an irresistible rush, caught and passed the leaders right at the end. Jackfull forced a stiff pace almost to the last stride, where he tired after swerving to the inside. Corrigan, always in forward contention, journeyed throughout in the worst going and, despite repeated stumbling at the end, could have won but for being pinned in next to the rail and ran a very game race. Briers, nearly left, closed a considerable gap. Orchan showed good speed for a half mile and then dropped hopelessly to the rear. Throw his race out.

St. George Jr., on the outside, secured a flying start and, setting the pace throughout, came away with a long lead in the stretch, but tired and only just lasted the journey. Soufriere, always on the inside in deep going and getting away slowly, was apparently outpaced badly in the early running, then came along in the stretch with a belated challenge, not quite getting up. Boloman, practically left standing at the post, closed an immense gap and must have been best. Phalanx tired after early forward contention and is out of place in sprints. Salable went a good half mile. St. Francis quit after a strenuous effort to outpace the winner for the first five furlongs. Delagoa ran poorly.

Overweights—Delagoa, 3 pounds; Soufriere, 1.

Eddie Tribe, who is helping A. B. Dade do the starting at the Fair Grounds, today received a letter from the Overland Park Racing Association asking him to officiate as starter at the Denver summer meeting. Tribe did the starting there last year. He will accept.

L. A. Cella is in deseperate straits for a rider at Hot Springs and has been wiring to his brother Robbins or Jack Martin, neither of whom is available, and Charles is trying to get him to buy the contract on Hayes, who is riding for "Texas" Smith. Hayes is a promising youngster, about the most likely at the track, but whether a deal will be made or not is still undecided.

ORCHAN'S RACE IS UNDER INVESTIGATION.

ORCHAN'S RACE IS UNDER INVESTIGATION.

San Francisco, Cal., February 23.—The stewards at Oakland have started an inquiry into today's poor showing of Orchan in the fifth race won by Nine Spot. Harry Stover and jockey Loggue, respectively owner and rider of the former Durmell horse, were called upon for an explanation. Presiding steward E. C. Hopper stated that the inquiry will be continued and the result announced tomorrow. The same gentleman also remarked that C. C. McCafferty had complained of unfair treatment by the press, for which he and his colleagues were unable to afford him any relief.

A heavy track under clear skies and an interesting card, brought the usual big crowd to the racetrack this afternoon. Three odds-on favorites won right off the reel, then a couple of outsiders and finally the day's good sport wound up with another, but lightly supported, favorite in St. George Jr. In this race Boloman, all but left at the post, ran a sensational race, carrying a big wager for his owner, D. S. Fountain.

Good Luck, Jake Sanders and Hammeraway of the Tichenor string will shortly return to Los Angeles.

Sir Edward recently picked up a nail while being geles.

Sir Edward recently picked up a nail while being driven to a buggy and was incapacitated from starting in the Derby.

Frank Kelly has been relieved from his duties as trainer for Dr. J. Grant Lyman and the horses in the string have been turned over to "Dick" Williams. The latter announced his intention of shipping his stable to Washington as soon as he can secure horse cars.

OAKLAWN BOOKS ARE HIT HARD.

Hot Springs, Ark., February 23.—Five favorites were again successful at Oaklawn today and the drubbing the eleven books received will long be remembered by the layers. Warm weather brought out a big attendance to the course and the sport was enjoyable. It was another Radtke day. He rode four of the winners.

Jockey Aubuchon arrived unexpectedly today and will be a welcome addition to the riding ranks here. He will have a mount in every race tomorrow, probably.

C. T. Gardner purchased from J. C. Milam, after the running of the 14th race, the filly Nissa for the reported price of $600.

RADTKE'S SUCCESS AT OAKLAWN.

The success of jockey Radtke at Hot Springs phenomenal, even when it is considered that the are no finished riders in competition with him, the fields have been small and that other condition have been in his favor. In the first six days the meeting the Chicago lad has ridden 22 winner or 63 per cent. of his mounts. The following his record from January I to date:

Course. Mts. At Oakland 99	1st. 25	2d.	3d. 12	Unp.	P.C. 25
At Crescent Park 44 At Oaklawn 35	13 22	9	4	18	.63

BRYAN IS STILL INVESTIGATING.

Hot Springs, Ark., February 23.—Frank Lawson, a Memphis saloonkeeper, came here today to intercede for A. J. Poindexter. He says he turned over the horse now in custody of the track officials to Poindexter and told him that it was The Rake. Lawson says he bought the horse when he was two years old from a man named Knight at Memphis. He says he paid him $70 and that Knight told him the horse's name was The Rake. He says he turned him over to Will Wallace, who kept him four days and then sent him back saying he could not beat a cow up a lane. Judge Bryan is still investigating the case.

LONGSTREET DIES AT ELMENDORF,

Lexington, Ky., February 23.—Longstreet, the twenty-year-old bay horse by Longfellow—Semper Idem, by Glen Athol, is dead at Elmendorf stud. He gained national fame as a three-year-old by defeating Salvator and Proctor Knott in the Omnibus Stakes. He won $81,365 in the colors of M. F. Dwyer. He sired many good winners and will have seventeen two-year-olds out this season.

WILLIAM WALLACE IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

New Orleans, La., February 23.—Reports from the New Orleans sanitarium as to the condition of William Wallace are far from encouraging. An operation was performed at 1:00 o'clock this after-noon and it was found that gangrene had set in. Mr. Wallace is in a very critical condition, but the doctors hold out some hope for pulling him through.

SAYS W. J. C. WILL CONTROL FORT ERIE.

not Springs, Ark., February 23.—Announcement was made today by Charles Meiers that Messrs. Stuart and Haddigan had brought negotiations to a successful termination for the purchase of the Fort Eric track and that a meeting there in the summer would be held under the auspices of the Western Jockey Club.

Went to post at 4:16. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Rose Hart, favored by good racing luck and clear of interference, followed the early leader closely, wore him down in the final furlong and outgamed Nissa in a final hard drive. The latter ran a good race and was gaining at the end. Wilcox had no mishaps and fully ran his race. Firalto, away in a tangle and badly ridden, closed a tremendous gap and was probably best. Jardiniere acted badly at the post and wore himself out by his crazy antics, showed a brief flash of early speed, but tired badly. Reina Regente ran a noor race. a poor race. Went to post at 4:47. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Dolinda broke slowly, but ran into the lead at once and tired after going three-quarters and appeared hopelessly beaten, then came again under vigorous handling and superior riding brought a hard earned victory. Henry O. ran in improved form and was best, but suffered defeat through incompetent handling. Dave Sommers was poorly ridden and had scant chance, but was best of those back of him. Dr. Hart ran a dull race.

Time, 12, 244, 37, 433.

Winner—B. f. by Filigrane—Caroona (trained by R. J. Walden).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second the same. There was a great deal of crowding at the start, which Susannah was lucky in avoiding, got away well and went to the front at once and won all the way without being closely approached. Bitter Miss was always in close pursuit and had no trouble in securing second place. Helen Lucas was pinched off at the start and had to go around on the outside, but finished with a rush. Dorothy M. had no mishaps. Black Enamel was pinched off at the start and was eased up in the stretch. King Leopold ran below his true form.

Overweights—Pepper and Salt, 1 pound; Apprise, 1½.

Winner—B. c, by Kingston—Royal Rose (trained by G. P. Brazier).

Went to post at 3:90. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second the same. Lancastrian got off poorly and ran an excellent race, had to go all around on the outside and made a wide turn for home, but finished with a rush and won with plenty left. Fenian also went well, wore Gallant down in the stretch run and outstayed him for second place. Gallant showed the most carly speed, but tired at the end. Stockwood stumbled after being straightened out for home and had to be taken up. Last Cherry was going well at the end.

Peter Nathaniel ran a surprising race and, after being knocked back, caught a lot of tiring horses in the stretch and finished gamely. Bernice closed up much ground from a poor send-off and finished with a rush. Ogontz also came fast in the stretch. Jade had no mishaps and tired badly after looming up at the head of the stretch. Lols had a rough journey. Quaint ran a good half and quit badly. Voltaic ran well to the stretch. overweights—Lady Ethel, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Woolsthorpe—Extra (trained by J. Collins).

Went to post at 4:43. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Creel was not hurried along in the early stages and came wide on the turn into the homestretch after going around on the outside and, finishing with a rush, caught Cascine tiring at the end and won going away. Cascine was a contender all the way and appeared the winner at the eighth post, but tired under a drive. Gentian showed a lot of speed, but the pace was slow and he tired in the last eighth and had all he could do to stall off Worgle Bug. The latter saved ground on the turn into the homestretch after a big gap. Merry Acrobat was unlucky and ran a good race. Heart of Hyacinth and Capitano showed early speed, but quit badly.
